

Unemployment Insurance Innovation Awards

Award Criteria, Eligibility, and Selection

Unemployment Insurance (UI) Innovation Awards

The United States Department of Labor, Office of Unemployment Insurance, presents the Unemployment Insurance Innovation Awards to honor states for significant innovations in three categories.

CRITERIA

One winner will be chosen for each of the following three categories:

A. Integrity – Innovations to improve program integrity by reducing improper UI benefit payments or denials, preventing the avoidance of unemployment tax liability and/or misclassification of workers, and improving the collection of overpayments and tax assessments.

B. Improved Worker and Employer Services – Innovations to improve service delivery in the areas of benefit payments, claims processing, adjudication, and tax processing.

C. Reemployment – Innovations to improve the employment outcomes of individuals receiving UI.

Nominations must demonstrate outcomes achieved as a result of these innovations.

ELIGIBILITY

Any state Unemployment Insurance agency may be nominated for this award. States may nominate themselves or be nominated by another individual or entity.

Note: In any year, based on the quality of nominations, the selection team may select no recipient or may select multiple recipients.

SELECTION

Nominations shall be reviewed by a panel of judges appointed by the Administrator of the Office of Unemployment Insurance.

HOW TO SUBMIT A NOMINATION

- Nominations must be made in writing and emailed to hays.daniel@dol.gov, hand delivered, or sent via courier (e.g. FedEx, UPS, etc.) to the following address by Monday, September 12, 2011, at 5:00 p.m. ET. (Note: Please do not send nominations via USPS as security measures related to USPS mail will delay delivery.)
